

THE CHESHIRE

MAY 2019 • ISSUE 004

MAGAZINE

People in BUSINESS
Showcasing leaders of the corporate world

Under ORDER

Michael Owen on why horse racing
has a special place in his heart

WILD ABOUT
Wellness

An action packed safari holiday

Into The Wild

Go off-grid as Mavros Safaris introduces a new gourmet road trip through Namibia's sand dunes, rugged coast and desert, led by 'safari butler' Dean Dowdney and his gourmet bush kitchen and craft gin bar, who will set up dining experiences in the most extraordinary settings.

www.mavrossafaris.com

Two Decades On

One of Paris's leading hotels, Le Bristol, which is located in the heart of the fashion, design, and art district, has plenty to celebrate this year, including its Head Chef, Eric Frechon, who has been at the four-Michelin-star hotel's culinary helm for 20 years. To mark the occasion, he has created a nine-course menu of haute cuisine comprising all of his finest signature dishes, each commemorating his rise through the ranks of Michelin acclaim.

The menu is available throughout the year and is priced at €380 per person, excluding beverages, www.oetkercollection.com

A Total Transformation

The Doyle Collection's stateside property, The Dupont Circle in Washington DC, is relaunching this summer following a multimillion-dollar renovation. Spearheaded by the group's Chairman Bernie Gallagher, in collaboration with interior designer Martin Brudnizki, the hotel will be complete with a new restaurant, The Pembroke and bar, Doyle.

www.doylecollection.com

New to Santorini's Town

Katikies Resorts & Club will open its seventh property – Katikies Garden – on 15 June 2019. It will be the very first five-star property in the centre of Fira town in Santorini and will cater to both couples and young families alike. Housed in a former monastery, the hotel has an interesting history, and charm aplenty featuring flourishing alleyways, fountains and blooming gardens. It will consist of 40 excellently appointed suites, spanning a total of seven categories, from Junior Suites to the two-floor Katikies Garden Pool Suite. Make sure you make a reservation at its restaurant – DePaul – which will sit in the centre of the hotel in a picturesque private courtyard and will offer modern dishes inspired by historic Greek gastronomy.

From €360 per night in a Junior Suite, including breakfast, www.katikies.com

